

DISCOVERING DRY-CLEANING

DEFINITION

This job consists in any cleaning process for clothing and textiles using either water or chemical solvents to remove stains. They are used to cleaning delicate fabrics that cannot be cleaned with a washing-machine. They also iron clothes.

The person doing that job is called a dry-cleaner.

We have a dry-cleaner's at our school where people can bring their clothes. It's cheaper than anywhere else!
You should come and visit us!

REQUIRED SKILLS : Being hardworking, neat and considerate.